

The number of Endangered, Threatened or Vulnerable IUCN Red List species found in the Rimba Raya Biodiversity Reserve. The Bornean Orangutan, the Proboscis Monkey, the Bornean Agile Gibbon, the Asian Sun Bear, the Sunda Pangolin and the Clouded Leopard are but a few of the flagship species from the UCN Red List that are found in Rimba Raya

The percentage of women in one Rimba Raya village that are self-employed in an award winning Shrimp Paste Community Enterprise (a Pilot Project funded by Rimba Raya with two more planned for 2016)

The amount of emissions avoided over the 30 year lifetime of the Rimba Raya Biodiversity Reserve Project, primarily due to the avoided conversion of our carbon rich peat swamp forest into palm oil plantations

The total area of the Rimba Raya Biodiversity Reserve, which serves as a crucial buffer zone to an additional 415,000Ha that makes up the Tanjung Puting National Park

The number of clean water filtration systems that have been distributed to 100% of all households within the Rimba Raya Biodiversity Reserve through a grant provided by InfiniteEARTH

The percentage of households and community centers that have been provided with solar power

Rimba Raya has established a Scholarship Fund that will pay for 3750 community children to go to school and provide 75,000 writing books for the next 10 years

The number of native species, cash crop producing trees committed to be planted over the next 5 years. With funding from InfiniteEARTH, over 200,000 trees have been planted to date by 6 community owned and managed CoOps